

Sincere Prayer

*Heavenly Father,
Look at me and remember that you created me and separated me to be yours. Answer my deepest prayers, sometimes silent and incomprehensible, which spring from my heart. I wish to be heard by you as a child who has the father's attention. Show yourself to me so that I may truly know you, and be thankful for have been born and have been chosen. Do not despise my simplest needs, for they make me feel humbly dependent on you and give me the certainty that you are bigger than anything that seems impossible to me. Give me a simple life where the strength of your love can quench my thirst, strengthening me to proceed, and fill me with your wisdom so that I can manage the great blessings you'll pour on me. Deliver me from all evil and the bad memories of the past; teach me day by day so that I can tread the path of good and give me always the security to feel loved and approved by you. Keep me in the innocence and the purity of childhood. Grant me the joy of living in a united family and the privilege to have a recognized and honored work, because I consecrate everything to you, so that the glory of my accomplishments belongs only to you. I also thank you for the blessings you give me every day, and I know that I will receive what I ask, Amen.*
